

The Roses of Heliogabalus, 1888

Alma-Tadema: At Home in Antiquity

Private Guided Tour for the Roman and the Hellenic Societies

Tuesday 10 October 2017
6.30 – 8.30 pm

Leighton House Museum
12 Holland Park Road
London W14 8LZ

The first major exhibition in London since 1913 devoted to Alma-Tadema's career, this show is displayed throughout the magical studio-house of the artist's friend, Frederic Lord Leighton. His vision of antiquity fixed ideas in the popular imagination of what life in the Greek and Roman world 'looked like'—ideas and images that were translated to the stage and to films such as Ben Hur and Gladiator. Important pieces from private collections are on display, including 'In My Studio', as well as works by his accomplished wife, Laura, and daughter, Anna. Over a quarter of a million visitors have seen this exhibition in Holland and Vienna, so this is an opportunity not to be missed.

A glass of wine will be served before the guided tours begin.

The exhibition catalogue will be available for sale at a reduced price.

Only 40 places are available. Please return the form below by 10 September.

Alma-Tadema: At Home in Antiquity

Please return this slip with your payment / credit card details to by 10 September: Roman Society, Senate House, Malet St, London, WC1E 7HU.

Name: _____ Tel. no.: _____

Address: _____

Email address: _____

No. of tickets @ £25 (students: £20) each: _____

I enclose a cheque (payable to the Roman Society) for £ _____

I wish £ _____ to be charged to my credit card.

Card type: MasterCard Visa JCB Expiry date: ____ / ____

Card no.: _____

Cardholder's Name: _____ Signature: _____