

The Roman Society is the leading organisation in the UK for those interested in Rome and the Roman Empire, including Roman Britain.

Publications

- Two annual journals: the Journal of Roman Studies, which contains articles and book reviews dealing with the Roman world in general, and Britannia, which has articles and reviews specifically on Roman Britain. Both are available in print & online.
- A biannual e-Newsletter: Epistula, keeping members up to date with news of recent discoveries, conferences, exhibitions, research, and publications.

- Two series of monographs (JRS and Britannia)

Electronic Resources

- A website, providing information about the Society and links to other useful sites. Vidcasts of the Society's lectures are available online.
- IMAGO, the Society's online image bank developed from the Library slide collection
- Journeys in the Roman Empire, an educational resource for schools and anyone with an interest in the Roman world

Library

The Library, maintained jointly with the Hellenic Society and in conjunction with the University of London's Institute of Classical Studies, has an international reputation as one of the world's foremost Classics lending libraries. It contains over 150,000 volumes, including almost 700 current periodical titles, and many digital resources

Events

A programme of public lectures and conferences, visits to sites and museums, and lectures arranged with local branches of the Classical Association. It also hosts the biennial international Roman Archaeology Conference.
