

Epigraphy Summer Programme

Rome, 16 to 25 July 2012

A nine day residential course examining epigraphy in context in ancient Rome, covering:

- Epigraphy, Art and Architecture
- Inscriptions as a historical source
- Epigraphy and Monumentality
- Opportunity to engage in ongoing research projects
- Use of local archives and collections
- An independent research project

Applications invited from postgraduate and PhD-track students in Epigraphic Studies, Ancient History, Archaeology, Classical Art and Architecture, and related disciplines

For further information, please visit www.bsr.ac.uk/staying/taught-courses/epigraphy