

The University of Nottingham

The Centre for Spartan and Peloponnesian Studies

Events 2011/12

Research Seminars

23 November 2011. Dr Clare Pickersgill (University of Nottingham Museum), 'The contribution of pottery studies to an understanding of Roman Sparta' dedicated in memory of Dave Hopkin

15 February 2012. Dr Mercurios Georgiadis (University of Nottingham; Open University of Cyprus) and Mr Aris Tsaravopoulos (Hellenic Ministry of Culture & Tourism), 'Leska on Kythera. A newly discovered Minoan peak sanctuary'

21 March 2012. Mr Kostas Paschalidis (National Museum of Athens, Greece), 'Life and Death in Mycenaean Achaea. The Klauss cemetery near Patras and its contemporary society'

NB. All CSPS research seminars will take place at 4.30pm in Room A2 in the Humanities Building at University Park Campus, preceded by tea/coffee and cakes from 4pm.

Annual Lecture

24 February 2012. Professor Joseph Maran (University of Heidelberg), "The appropriation of amber objects in Mycenaean Peloponnese" (exact location and time tba soon)

3rd CSPS International Conference

'The Sacred Landscapes of the Peloponnese from prehistory to post-byzantine times' organised in collaboration with the 5th Ephorate of Byzantine Antiquities, under the auspices of the Municipality of Sparta Sparta, 30 March - 1 April 2012.

All welcome!